1. Open to girls between the ages of 14 and 25 (Queen) and 7 and 13 (Sweetheart) years of age, as of September 1, 2019. RVCR committee reserves the right to hold only one contest open to all girls ages 7 to 25 depending on number of contestants signed up by May 1, 2019.
2. Contestant does not need to reside in Mendocino County.
3. Is not and has never been married.
4. Is not pregnant and has no children.
5. Is available to represent the Round Valley Community's Labor Day Rodeo on Friday, August 30, Saturday, August 31 and Sunday, September 1, 2019 and participate in Grand Entry all days.
6. Contestant will be required to help with various tasks and be present to hand out awards.
7. It is not mandatory, but we strongly recommend that the Queen contestants attend as many rodeos as possible promoting and selling tickets for RVCR. We would also encourage contestants to participate in the Grand Entry at other rodeos.
8. Contestants are strongly encouraged to put up posters to help sell tickets and promote themselves as a contestant as well as promotion of RVCR; posters should be reviewed by RVCR Queen Coordinator prior to distribution.
9. All tickets will be checked in and out through the RVCR Queen Coordinator. Ticket sales must be turned in not less than once monthly. Contestant is financially responsible for any missing tickets.
10. Final ticket money, ticket stubs, and any unsold tickets, must be turned in by Friday, August 30, 2019 at 11am.
11. In order to qualify for the 10% or 15% payments the contestant must complete the horsemanship and speech sections of the contest.
12. Each contestant must sell a minimum of $3000.00 in tickets to be crowned and receive buckle, and a minimum of $5000.00 to win the saddle.
13. The contestant must have complete control of their horse at all times when representing the RVCR. Judges have the right to disqualify a contestant if their horse appears lame or unfit to compete in horsemanship contest.

14. The contestant must wear appropriate western attire at all times when representing the Round Valley Community Rodeo, i.e. jeans, western boots, short or long sleeve shirts (no tank tops or sleeveless shirts allowed).
15. No drugs, tobacco, or alcohol use when representing the Round Valley Community Rodeo. Violation will result in a dis-qualification from the contest. In the event such an incidence occurs during the Rodeo weekend after the Queen Contest is completed, the Queen may be removed from her duties, must return her awards, and the 1st Runner-Up asked to step in.
16. Contestants are expected to behave in a polite, professional manner, and to represent the RVCR to the best of their abilities.
17. The contestants are asked to be available during the Blackberry Festival, Saturday, August 17 and Sunday, August 18 to sell tickets, represent the rodeo and answer questions.
18. Contestants are requested to attend a Round Valley Community Rodeo committee meeting and introduce themselves.
19. Write-up and picture for the Rodeo Program must be submitted to Queen Coordinator no later than August 1, 2019.
20. Only the contestant may sell tickets. Friends or family members may not sell tickets on their behalf. Violation is grounds for disqualification.
21. The contest will be judged and then a weighted tabulation of 50% on ticket sales, 30% on horsemanship, and 20% on speech will be used to select the Queen.

The following awards will be provided by the Round Valley Community Rodeo:

To All Contestants, including Queen(Sweetheart):

- a. 10% of ticket sales upon $3000.00 in sales
